

More Gold.—We are informed, upon respectable authority, that gold has been discovered in four or five different places in Habersham county, of this state, and it is further stated that there are indications of its being as abundant in that region as in North Carolina.