

The Columbus Enquirer says, that a detachment of U. S. troops from Tampa Bay, under the command of Capt. Brady, were landed at the Creek Agency on the 25th ult. This detachment, that paper continues, will proceed to the Cherokee Nation, where a new military post will be established. The first business which these soldiers will be employed in, will be, we presume, the removal of those engaged in digging for Gold in that territory.