

Gold in Tennessee.—The Knoxville Chronicle says, "We understand from unquestionable authority, that Gold has been found a few miles south of Tellico Plains, in the Cherokee Nation, and within the limits of Tennessee. Some of the Gold has been brought here, assayed, and found to be of an excellent quality. There are already two or three hundred persons in search of the precious metal at that place."