

ders; beyond this he cannot go. An officer commanding a detachment of U. S. Troops, who has been ordered into the nation, as it is said, for the purpose of removing intruders, has communicated to the Cherokees at the Gold mines the following notice :

“ That an arrangement has been entered into, by which there will be mutual assistance between the United States’ Troops and the civil authority of Georgia in all civil processes, the jurisdiction of Georgia having been extended over the chartered limits, and all the natives are hereby advised to return to their homes and submit to the proclamation of the State authority.”
