

During the last week a report was current in this place that a party of U. S. Troops had fired upon a party of Gold Diggers in the Cherokee territory, ten of whom were killed. The report is without foundation. Col. King has since arrived at Athens, direct from the territory, who states that no such affair took place, and that the Gold Diggers had nearly all left the country.