

MR. WIRT TO GOV. GILMER.

Baltimore, June 4th, 1830.

SIR—A just respect for the State of Georgia, and a desire to avoid a misconstruction which might be attended with evil consequences, seem to me to call for a communication which, under other circumstances, might well be deemed officious and intrusive.—The excitement with regard to the Indians within your borders is already so high, and in this state of feeling, measures of the most innocent character are so easily misapprehended and converted into causes of offence, that I persuade myself your Excellency will at least approve the motive of this letter as a measure
