

Camp-Ground, Houston County,
September 24, 1831.

To the Editor of the Macon Telegraph.

SIR—I have just had an interview with the Rev. JOHN HOWARD on the subject of the communication addressed to him, through the Telegraph, signed C. He has furnished me with a copy of his reply. Its language and spirit are so entirely respectful, together with his statements to me, in connection with the implicit confidence I place in his declarations contained in his reply, completely satisfy me, and am at present disposed to believe I misapprehended his motives.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

HOWELL COBB.
