

THE CHEROKEE CASE. We learn from Washington, that on Saturday last the Supreme Court decided against the constitutionality of the laws of Georgia, under which the Cherokee Missionaries have been imprisoned. The opinion was read by Chief Justice Marshall—Judge McLean read an opinion, corresponding entirely with the views of the Chief Justice. The Judges were all of the same opinion, except Judge Baldwin, who contended that the Court had no jurisdiction.