

On Thursday, Feb. 23d, about 12 o'clock, a political meeting was held in Washington, in the court house, according to notice, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the Convention which is to be held at Baltimore in May next, for the purpose of nominating a Vice President. Mr. Samuel Barnett was called to the Chair, and Mr. William W. Smyth, appointed Secretary, when the following resolutions were introduced and supported by Capt. David P. Hillhouse. They passed without a dissenting voice.

Resolved, In the opinion of this meeting, it is essential to the preservation of great political rights, to the several members of this confederacy, that Gen. Andrew Jackson be re-elected President of the U. States; and that some competent citizen be selected by the great republican party attached to Gen. Jackson's administration, to be supported by that party for Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, That we support the purpose of the convention proposed to be held at Baltimore, in May next,—and that the Hon. G. M. Troup, J. Forsyth, R. H. Wilde, W. Thompson, J. M. Wayne, T. F. Foster, H. G. Lamar, D. Newnan, and A. S. Clayton, Senators and representatives from Georgia, in Congress, be requested to represent the interests and opinions of this meeting in the said Convention—and in that body to unite with the republican party of the union, in selecting a candidate for the Vice Presidency of the U. States.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, signed by the Charman and Secretary, be transmitted to the delegates named in the preceding resolution.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the "Washington News" and such other papers in the state as may entertain the propriety of the object.
