

At a meeting of the citizens of Lexington and its vicinity, on Saturday, 21st inst. John Moore being called to the chair, and George H. Young, appointed secretary, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:—

Whereas the citizens of Georgia have waited patiently and looked with anxiety to the late session of Congress for relief from an unequal, unconstitutional and oppressive Tariff; but this their reasonable hope has been disappointed—an adjournment having taken place, under the distinct annunciation, that this odious measure is to be retained, not only as a canker upon our present industry and labour, but to be perpetuated as a badge of our servitude to our posterity.

Believing, therefore as we do, that further forbearance would be criminal—Resolved, That the citizens of Oglethorpe county of all parties, be invited to attend a public dinner on Friday, the 3d of August next, in this place, to take into consideration the sufferings of our people, and to determine on and recommend, the mode and measure of redress proper to be adopted.

Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives in Congress, who voted against the late bill to regulate imposts, &c. and such other persons as the committee may designate, be invited to attend with us on that occasion.

Resolved, That John Moore, John Billups, George H. Young, Dr. J. B. McJunkin, John Banks, Augustus Alden and Joseph Henry Lumpkin, be appointed a committee to forward invitations to guests. And that Robert Freeman, P. W. Hutchinson, B. Pope, I. J. Moore, J. Collier, R. Hubbard, B. W. Hubbard, John Winn, John Townsend, J. Bell, Elisha Strong, B. Stamps, Wm. Lumpkin, Clark Taylor, M. Andrews, Alexander Thomas, Samuel, Lumpkin, Dr. S. Glenn, Mid. Pope, B. M. Hill, H. J. Pope, J. M. Stevens, R. T. Hanson, E. Coxe, F. W. Cook, Dr. A. S. Hill, B. F. Hardaman, T. R. Andrews, H. P. Hill, C. W. Totten, Jos. Moore, Dr. I. S. Sims, Wm. L. McKinley, George M. Dudley, Wm. H. Smith, T. C. Billups, P. R. Gilmer, J. Landrum, H. Jordan, J. Jenkins and Robert Gillespie, be a committee to prepare toasts, and to make suitable preparations for the occasion.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the chairman and secretary, and forwarded to the public Gazettes generally for publication.

JOHN MOORE, Chairman.

G. H. YOUNG, Secretary.
