

In noticing the reported toast of Judge Clayton at Laurens C. H. and his speech in Virginia, in our last, we inadvertently fell into an error, in saying that the speech was delivered at Lynchburg on the 4th of July. It was at a dinner given to Judge P. P. Barbour in Amherst county, Va. to which he was invited on his return from Washington City.

