
REMARKS OF MR. MILLSAPS,

On Thursday, P. M., 25th., on the bill to reduce the salaries of certain officers, therein named, in committee of the whole.

Mr. MILLSAPS, of Pontotoc, said that he came here, and that his constituents wished the pruning knife put to the salaries of officers, and now the momentous time had arrived, and he hoped that every member would come, shoulder to shoulder, and do by deeds what they promised their constituents by words;—That good talents could be procured on the bench for two thousand dollars; that in Georgia, the office of Judge was sought after with avidity, by the best talents—that Judge Clayton, the father of the gentleman who ran for governor, in this state, who was far above his son in talents, served on the bench in Georgia for the salary of $2,100.
