

STATE of GEORGIA, } PERSONAL-Columbin County. } ly appeared before me Merryman Thorne, Esq; Francis Woodward, who, being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, doth depose and declare, that in a certain cause depending in the inferior court, between this deponent and the estate of John Carson; Philip Clayton, Esq; as clerk of the inferior court for Richmond county, made a certain charge against him of four pounds fourteen shillings sterling, and, that before he could obtain the papers from his hands and possession, for the purpose of removing the cause for trial into Columbia county, he was obliged to take the advice of George Walker, Esq; attorney at law, who wrote to Mr. Clayton, that four dollars in addition to the three which he had received were all the fees he was entitled to, which sum the said Clayton afterwards agreed to receive, and was accordingly paid to the said Philip Clayton by this deponent.

FRANCIS WOODWARD.

Sworn before me, this 23d

September 1793.

MERRYMAN THORNE, J. P.
