

FROM A CORRESPONDENT.

On Saturday last, Phillip Clayton, Esq. Commissioner for the sales of confiscated property, Clerk of the inferior court of the county of Richmond, Justice of the peace and Inspector of tobacco, was by the general assembly appointed TREASURER of the state of GEORGIA!!! Let not in future, the tongue of profanity arraign the tri-une mysteries of the christian religion, for here is an instance of three officers in one person created by a power which has no pretensions to divinity,---Commissioner, Justice and Treasurer in the person of Phillip Clayton:---Neither let any one say, that miracles have ceased, when it is a fact that the said personage has already been, or will soon be, QUALIFIED; notwithstanding many are of opinion with the wag, who, being asked, 'when will Mr. Clayton be qualified?' answered, 'never by G-d's
