

TO BE RENTED,

FOR ONE YEAR,

Or perhaps a longer time,

THE House, and a part of the cleared land, as may be agreed on, where the Subscriber now resides, adjoining the Ware-House of Mr. Ezekiel Harris. It being a neat compact house, with four good rooms below stairs, a good garden, stables, carriage house, and corn house, and many other conveniences, which cannot fail to render the place very valuable, and particularly to one who would keep a good house of Entertainment, with a good assortment of Groceries. The terms may be known by applying to the subscriber, and possession given immediately.

P. CLAYTON.