

Executive Department, Georgia,
Laufordville, 9th July, 1803.

THE death of the late Governor, Brigadier-General JOSIAH TATTNALL, jun. being publicly announced, and the Executive conceiving it but a just tribute to the character of so good an officer and citizen, that a sense of his loss should be manifested,

ORDERS,

All Officers in Military Commission, and calls upon all civil officers within this state, belonging thereto, and recommends to every description of citizens residing within the same, to wear, for the space of six weeks, to commence from the 20th instant, a black crape round the left arm, as a token of the affection and esteem they had for him while alive, and the deep affection and regret with which they are penetrated at his death.

GEO: R. CLAYTON, Sec'y.
