

Executive Department, Dec. 1, 1828.

I lay before the General Assembly a letter from John Moore, Esq. declining his appointment as an Elector of President and Vice-President of the United States. All the other persons chosen, viz: John Rutherford, Robert R. Reid, David Blackshear, Augustin S. Clayton, Solomon Graves, John J. Maxwell, Oliver Porter, and William Terrell, esquires, have accepted the appointments conferred on them by the people, and are now in Milledgeville ready to perform the duty imposed upon them.

JOHN FORSYTH.

To the Hon. the Speaker and