

TO BE RENTED,

THE House on the hill above Hawke's bridge, late the property of Peter Carnes, Esq. deceased, and the Plantation adjoining. The house is a convenient stand for a Tavern or Store, and the plantation equal to any in the vicinity of Augusta. The house and plantation may be rented separately or together, as it may best suit the convenience of those disposed to rent. The terms may be known by applying to ELIZA CARNES.

December 15, 1795.