

The Presentments of the Grand Jury in Washington county, at July Term, 1791.

WE, the Grand Jury of Washington county, have examined the Tax Return for the present year; and, to the best of our knowledge, believe it to be very accurate.

We present Israel Joiner, Job Self; Nicholas Welsh, Alexander Frederick, Abraham Helton, Isaac Simmonson, Thomas Smith, Joseph Brantley, Robert Yearwood; Richard Wheeler, and Jacob Gainer, as persons coming under the description of the law for remitting persons from their poll tax.

We present Cader Price and Cherry Mulkey, for living in a state of adultery.

We present Richard Dowdie and the Widow Glover, for living in adultery.

We present William Andrews and Mary Gainer, for living in adultery.

We present Nimrod Burke for marrying two women, and living in a state of adultery.

We present Eleazor Mobley and Ruth Glover, for living in adultery.

We present as a very great grievance the want of a tobacco inspection at the Great Shoals of Ogechee, at the place before petitioned for.

We present Peter Carnes, Esq. for profane swearing.

We present as a very great grievance the present extensive situation of this county, in
