

RICHMOND SUPERIOR COURT, November term, 1798.

THOMAS DAVIS,

vs.

NATHANIEL TWINING.

ON the petition of Thomas Davis, praying the foreclosure of the equity of redemption in a certain lot of land in the town of Augusta, on Greene-street, adjoining James Meriwether and the late Robt. Forsyth, dec. known in the plan of said town by the No. ( ). purchased by the said Nathaniel Twining, from John Marcus, and by the said Marcus from Nicholas H. Bugg, and by the said Bugg from Reuben Coleman, and by the said Coleman from the trustees of the said town of Augusta, as by reference to the said deeds of conveyance will appear; also of one-third of a line of stage carriages between the town of Augusta and city of Savannah, for the term of ten years; and also all the interest of the said Nathaniel Twining in and to a certain agreement entered into between the said Nathaniel Twining, Malachi Jones and John Blanton.

And on motion of Peter J. Carnes, Esq. attorney for Thomas Davis:

It is ordered, That the principal, interest and cost on the said mortgage, be paid into court within twelve months from the date hereof—Otherwise the equity of redemption will be from thenceforth foreclosed, and that this rule be published in one of the public gazettes in this state.

Taken from the minutes,

JOS. HUTCHINSON, D. Clk.
