

AUGUSTA, Nov. 15.

We hear from Louisville, that the choice of electors for president and vice-president, was to take place yesterday.

DIED.] On Sunday evening last, after a lingering illness, PETER JOHNSON CARNES, Esq. solicitor-general of the middle circuit of this state, aged 28 years. In this worthy man were united those qualities of the head and heart, which command respect, and inspire esteem—possessing talents which presaged future greatness, endued with sensibility which engaged affection, blessed with a placidity of temper, which sweetens social intercourse, and endeared to his numerous friends by the uniform uprightness of his conduct, their sincere sorrow for his early departure from temporal enjoyments, is only alleviated by the firm belief in that happy exchange, which is the sure reward of a virtuous life.

On the 27th ult. his excellency the go-
