

Colonels Carnes, Easley and Harris, under an appointment which I made, in compliance with a concurred resolution of the 20th of November last, repaired to the Cherokee Nation, to endeavor to prevail on the Indians to forbear committing outrages on our citizens, who have settled beyond the temporary boundary line, and to suffer them to remain peaceably on their settlements. It being at the season of the year, when they reached