

SHERIFF'S SALE.

On the first Tuesday in December next, at the Market house in the city of Augusta, between the usual hours, the following property,

Will be Sold,

One negro fellow named DICK, levied on as the property of Floyd Jarvis, to satisfy an execution in favor of Darly Hun'ev.

ALSO, One negro fellow named BURWELL, levied on as property belonging to the estate of col. Robert Watkins, to satisfy a judgment in favor of Matthias Maher.

ALSO, a piece of land lying in the village of Harrisburg, bounded on the south by lands of Joseph Henderson on the north by free ferry street, on the east by land belonging to the estate of Peter Carnes, the above described land levied on as the property of E. Harris, to satisfy a judgment in favor of Persons and Haws.

A. RHODES, D. S.

October 31.

[rf]