

Extract of a letter, to the Editors of the Chronicle, dated

MILLEDGEVILLE, N.C.

On Saturday came on the election
senator to Congress, when F. W.
Esq. was elected without opposition.
On the same day came on the election six Judges, one Attorney and two Solicitors General.

MIDDLE CIRCUIT.

J. H. Montgomery, Judge, no opposer.
R. L. Gault, Attorney General.

EASTERN CIRCUIT.

J. M. Bertin, Judge, no opposer.
Law Solicitor General.

SOUTHERN CIRCUIT.

T. W. Harris, Judge, T. Holt, Solicitor General.

OAKMULGE CIRCUIT.

C. B. Strong, Judge, — Solicitor
General.

NORTHERN CIRCUIT.

John M. Dolly, Judge.
J. A. Heard, Solicitor General.

WESTERN CIRCUIT.

A. S. Clayton, Judge, — Law
Solicitor General.

There has been several weeks,
the commencement of the session, town is completely enveloped in smog
so much so that the Sun has not power cast a shadow as you walk the street elsewhere.